A Zug hotel among the top 50 city hotels in Switzerland

The Swiss business magazine BILANZ has again published the 300 best hotels in Switzerland and Europe. In the 27th BILANZ hotel ranking, La Colombe Boutique Hotel in Zug's old town, which will open in the fall of 2022, was ranked 47th among the top 50 city hotels.

The boutique hotel lies, somewhat hidden, in the dreamy old town of Zug. Nine top-quality, elegant rooms, some with balconies overlooking the lake, delight with historic and original elements, such as an exposed wood-beamed ceiling, 13th-century brickwork, arched windows or an antique tiled stove, but always with an ultra-modern bathroom.

In the hotel's own "Restaurant zur Taube", awarded 14 points by Gault Millau, lovers of excellent gastronomy with regional and seasonal organic products will get their money's worth. For physical exercise, the hotel offers its guests a fitness center with high-quality Technogym equipment and a spectacular view of Lake Zug.

La Colombe Boutique Hotel is the first hotel from Zug to be included in the coveted list of the 50 best city hotels in Switzerland published by the business magazine BILANZ. After only ten months since opening, the small boutique hotel run by the tenant couple Aline Sigrist and Giovanni Melis can be pleased about this accolade in the hotel scene.

The first BILANZ issue with the hotel ranking appeared in 1997. BILANZ's renowned hotel ranking, headed by hotel expert Claus Schweitzer, is based on 400 expert tests over the past 18 months, on a written survey of 88 top Swiss hoteliers, on the current ratings of relevant travel publications and test portals, and on the experiences of 120 European hotel experts and travel professionals. BILANZ converted the ratings of these four evaluation pillars into a uniform 100-point scheme.

LA COLOMBE BOUTIQUE HOTEL

La Colombe Boutique Hotel

La Colombe Boutique Hotel opened in October 2022 after about two years of renovations. The "La Colombe Boutique Hotel" is located in a listed building in the alleys with colorfully painted rows of houses in Zug's old town and directly on the lake. The hotel skilfully contrasts the busy commercial city of Zug with a certain lightness of being.

Gourmets and lovers of excellent gastronomy will get their money's worth in the adjoining Restaurant zur Taube, which has been awarded 14 Gault Millau points and serves regional and seasonal organic products. The team of chef Riccardo Pianta and the lively top chef Giovanni Melis "Gio" conjures up an exciting mix of meat, fish and vegetarian dishes. Nine elegant rooms are available to guests. Some of them have balconies overlooking the lake, while others feature historic and original elements such as exposed wood-beamed ceilings, 13th-century masonry, arched windows, or an antique tiled stove, but always with modern bathrooms.
